

KMCH COLLEGE OF PHYSIOTHERAPY

WORLD PHYSIOTHERAPY DAY EVENT

SEMINAR TOPIC

"IT HURTS TO MOVE" KNEE PAIN - EVIDENCE IN PRACTICE

Dr Dev Anand graduated Master of Physiotherapy from Manipal University in 2006. In 2021, he completed a Doctor of Physical Therapy from Arcadia University, Pennsylvania, USA. Later, he has undergone all the modules in McKenzie Mechanical Diagnosis and Therapy Certification Program (McKenzie Institute, Framingham, USA) in 2015.

DR. DEV ANAND RAMANATHAN.
MPT(ORTHOPAEDIC MANUAL THERAPY), DPT(USA)

DAY SCHEDULE FOR SEMINAR :

1. Structure and function of the knee - Review of anatomy, and biomechanics of the knee.
2. Hands-on session - biomechanical assessment.
3. International Classification of Functioning in Knee Disorders
4. Reasoning and assessment of knee disorders.
5. Hands-on session - Advanced therapy techniques for treating knee disorders.
6. Clinical practice guidelines on Knee Disorders.
7. Central pain in knee disorders.
8. Summary, Q & A.

TUESDAY, 6 SEPTEMBER

9:15 AM - 4.30 PM

TARGET AUDIENCE :

BPT Third & Final Year Students, Interns, Post Graduate Students of KMCH College of Physiotherapy

VENUE :

Multi purpose hall, KMCH College of Physiotherapy.

KMCH COLLEGE OF PHYSIOTHERAPY

A unit of Kovai Medical Center Research and Educational Trust

WORLD PHYSIOTHERAPY DAY CELEBRATIONS

We cordially invites you for

SEPTEMBER 6

SEMINAR - KNEE PAIN

"It hurts to move" - Knee pain : Evidence in Practice, by Resource person Dr. Dev Anand Ramanathan MPT (Orthopaedic Manual Therapy), DPT (USA)

SEPTEMBER 7

INTRA COLLEGE EVENT

Sports and cultural events for KMCH College of Physiotherapy students

The Management, Principal & All Faculty Members

